THE SOLEMNITY OF CORPUS CHRISTI

The Church will celebrate the Solemnity of Corpus Christi (the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ) on Sunday, May 29th. In the Eucharist, the Mass, we find the source and summit of our faith.

At the conclusion of the 11:00AM Mass at Saint Thomas on that day, the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed and a procession will be formed. We will process outside the church and stop at designated stations to offer Benediction. At the conclusion of the procession, the Blessed Sacrament will remain exposed for Adoration until 3:00PM, concluding with Benediction.

This is a wonderful way to celebrate this great Feast and offer praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God for the great gift of His most Holy Body and Blood. We do hope you will join us for all or some of this beautiful devotion.

SEEING THINGS UNDREAMED OF

St. Cyril of Jerusalem was born around 315 and died on March 18, 386. He was bishop of the Holy City when much of the Christian world was wracked by confusion over the heresy of Arius, a priest who denied the full divinity of Christ. His most famous writings are his catechetical instructions, considered among "the most remains of Christian antiquity," were written when he was a presbyter (priest) in Jerusalem and charged with instructing those preparing for baptism at the Easter Vigil. The following comes from his instruction on the Holy Spirit.

"The water that I shall give him will become in him a fountain of living water, welling up into eternal life." This is a new kind of water, a living, leaping water, welling up for those who are worthy. But why did Christ call the grace of the Spirit water? Because all things are dependent on water; plants and animals have their origin in water. Water comes down from heaven as rain, and although it is always the same in itself, it produces many different effects, one in the palm tree, another in the vine, and so on throughout the whole of creation. It does not come down, now as one thing, now as another, but while remaining essentially the same, it adapts itself to the needs of every creature that receives it.

In the same way the Holy Spirit, whose nature is always the same, simple and indivisible, apportions grace to each man as he wills. Like a dry tree which puts forth shoots when watered, the soul bears the fruit of holiness when repentance has made it worthy of receiving the Holy Spirit. Although the Spirit never changes, the effects of this action, by the will of God and in the name of Christ, are both many and marvelous.

The Spirit makes one man a teacher of divine truth, inspires another to prophesy, gives another the power of casting out devils, enables another to interpret Holy Scripture. The Spirit strengthens one man's self-control, shows another how to help the poor, teaches another to fast and lead a life of asceticism, makes another oblivious to the needs of the body, and trains another for martyrdom. His action is different in different people, but the Spirit himself is always the same. In each person, Scripture says, the Spirit reveals his presence in a particular way for the common good.

The Spirit comes gently and makes himself known by his fragrance. He is not felt as a burden, for he is light, very light. Rays of light and knowledge stream before him as he approaches. The Spirit comes with the tenderness of a true friend and protector to save, to heal, to teach, to counsel, to strengthen, to console. The Spirit comes to enlighten the mind first of the one who receives him, and then, through him, the minds of others as well.

As light strikes the eyes of a man who comes out of darkness into the sunshine and enables him to see clearly things he could not discern before, so light floods the soul of the man counted worthy of receiving the Holy Spirit and enables him to see things beyond the range of human vision, things hitherto undreamed of.
